GARY ALJETS

The trouble with coming to school on time is that it makes the day so long.

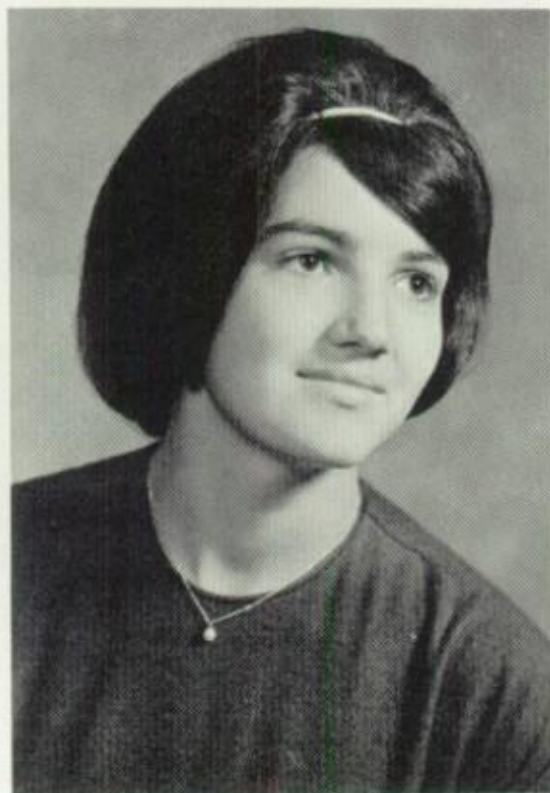

NANCY BACHMAN

Fun is my middle name, and I've sure had plenty.

BETSY BANGERT

She loves life and that isn't all she loves either.

LARRY FINLEY

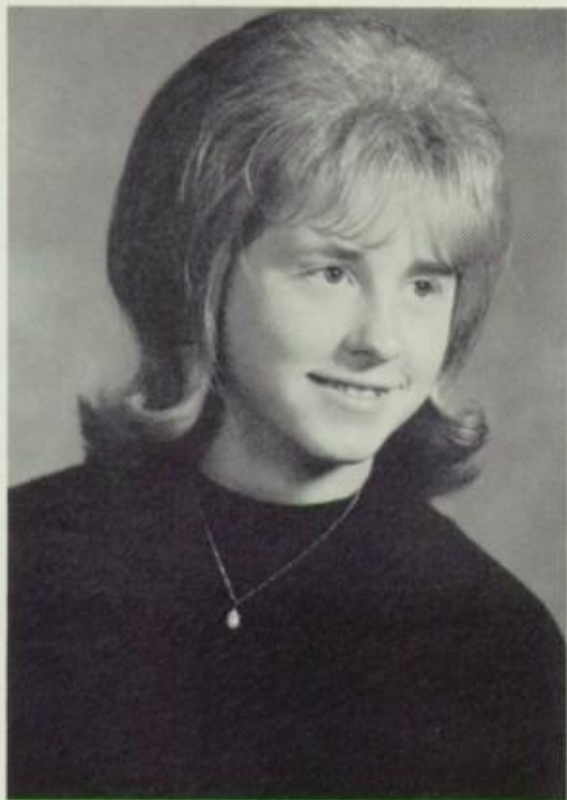

I think I need a chaperone.

DIANE GEERDES

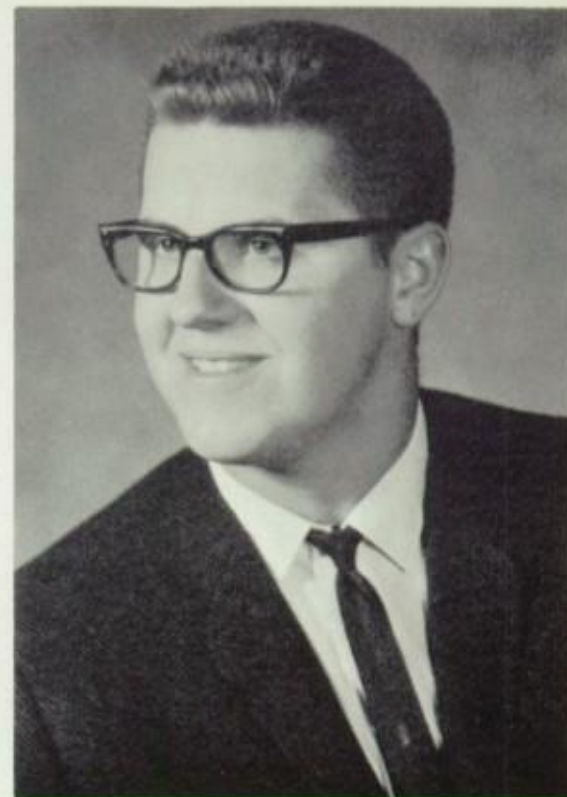

Some say she's quiet, but there are others who know better.

LINDA JUILFS

She enjoys traveling, especially to Rockwell City.

DAVID KORTE

What he wants to get out of school most is himself.

JOAN KROSKA

Bubbling over with laughter and fun; never a worry for work undone.

and sometimes
I just sit.

CONSTANCE

She works, she plays, does this,
does that, but most of all she likes to chat.

JEAN TIMAN

She never had much to say, or perhaps she knew just when to be quiet.

ALAN WIEMERS

A very careful person, careful not to overdo it.

MILTON WILE

I'd do great things, but it's too much work.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Twenty-four freshmen found themselves at P.H.S. on August 27, 1963, starting their high school career. They were led in their studies by Mrs. Aden, Mrs. Earwood, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Sawyer, Mr. Braynard, and Mr. King. They were coached by Mr. Strutzenberg and Mr. Hall.

Nancy Bachman came to join us after the 1st quarter. Our 25 members were cut down to 22 by the tragic death of Merle Schoon and by the leaving of Gene Morwitzer and Renae Olson.

We returned our sophomore year with 23 members, Martha Younie had joined us at the beginning of the year, and Linda Berglund came at semester time just as Phyllis Reiling was leaving us.

Our teachers were Mrs. Aden, Mrs. Bevan, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Freeseaman, Mr. Strutzenberg, Mr. Hall, Mr. Timm, Mr. Sawyer, Mr. Braynard, and Mr. Kennedy. Our coaches were again Mr. Hall and Mr. Strutzenberg.

We had already completed the first half of high school, and it had really gone by fast.

Our Junior class membership dwindled to 21 because Bob Omann had moved to Humboldt and Martha Younie had moved to Cherokee during summer vacation.

Our teachers were Miss Cole, Mrs. Bevan, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Hubbeling, Mr. Freeseaman, Mr. Tyron, and Mr. Timm. The athletic teams were coached by Mr. Tryon and Mr. Brown.

In the fall, we worked hard to sell magazines to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. We practiced our class play, "Lo and Behold" for many weeks and presented it on November 12. Excitement ran high when our class rings arrived in February.

On April 30, we honored the seniors at a colorful Banquet and Prom, which was entitled "Under the Magnolias." We were all looking forward to our last year when we would be the leaders of P.H.S.

Our Senior year started with 22 members with the new addition of Tom Patterson from Lytton.

Our teachers were Mrs. Bevan, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Pady, Mr. Freeseaman, Mr. Roof, Miss Cole, Mr. Brown, Mr. Hubbeling, and Mr. Timm. The athletic teams were coached by Mr. Brown and Mr. Lane.

On October 10, we journeyed to Storm Lake to have our senior pictures taken.

Diane Gerdes left our class at semester time and our class was cut to 21 members.

We all are looking forward to the Senior Class Play and also the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

We will then leave Pomeroy High School. Each will go on his own way to whatever lies ahead, but will have many fond memories of P.H.S. and the four wonderful years we had together.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

GARY ALJETS--My attendance record to Debbie Johnson. My policy "If you miss - say you were washing a dish."

NANCY BACHMAN--Her varied wardrobe to all the Junior girls. Hope you all have plenty of skirts and not too many slacks.

BETSY BANGERT--Her basketball ability to Kathy Birkey and Jerry Schultz. The running is the most fun.

LINDA BERGLUND--Her ability to play the baritone to Pat McCarty and Pat Meyer.

LARRY FINLEY--His cowboy boots to Sheila B. Don't get them caught in your clutch.

DIANE GEERDES--Her secretarial ability to Mark Heide and Dennis Burke.

RUPERT HERRICK--My over-all abilities to do a good job to all the Junior boys.

LINDA JUILFS--My shyness in class to Susie Rosenboom and Cindy Hansen. I have thoughts, even if I don't express them.

DAVID KORTE--His size and build to Gail Rosdail and Becky Zinnel. Henceforth the football team will have two new stars--Running Rosdail and Zippy Zinnel.

JOAN KROSKA--My '53 Chevy to Nancy Korte. It's nice for a Sunday afternoon, isn't it, Joan?

LEROY LENZ--My camaro to Roger Bohn. Red is flashier than gray anytime!

MARY MC CARTY--Her basketball speed to Debbie Stuart. Speed it up, Stu!

BERNIE MC GOWAN--Her ability to step into the classroom 5 seconds before the bell rings to Gordon Loots and Marsha Aljets.

TOM PATTERSON--My ability to stay awake in class after a long hard weekend to Terry Loots and Diane Nelson.

JAY ROSDAIL--All my mechanical books to Jane Streit and Gene Bangert. If you thought art was bad, get a load of these!

MICHAEL SCHULTZ--His friendly and winning personality to Lynn Hansch and Tom Sage. It's a great asset when you're trying to influence teachers.

NADINE SEEHUSEN--Her petite size to Jim Moench and Duane Seehusen. Watch out! You may get stepped on.

ROBERT SEEHUSEN--His corvair to Dean Albrecht. Dean's motto will be: A nickel a gallon; a dollar a tank; I'll give you a ride as far as the bank.

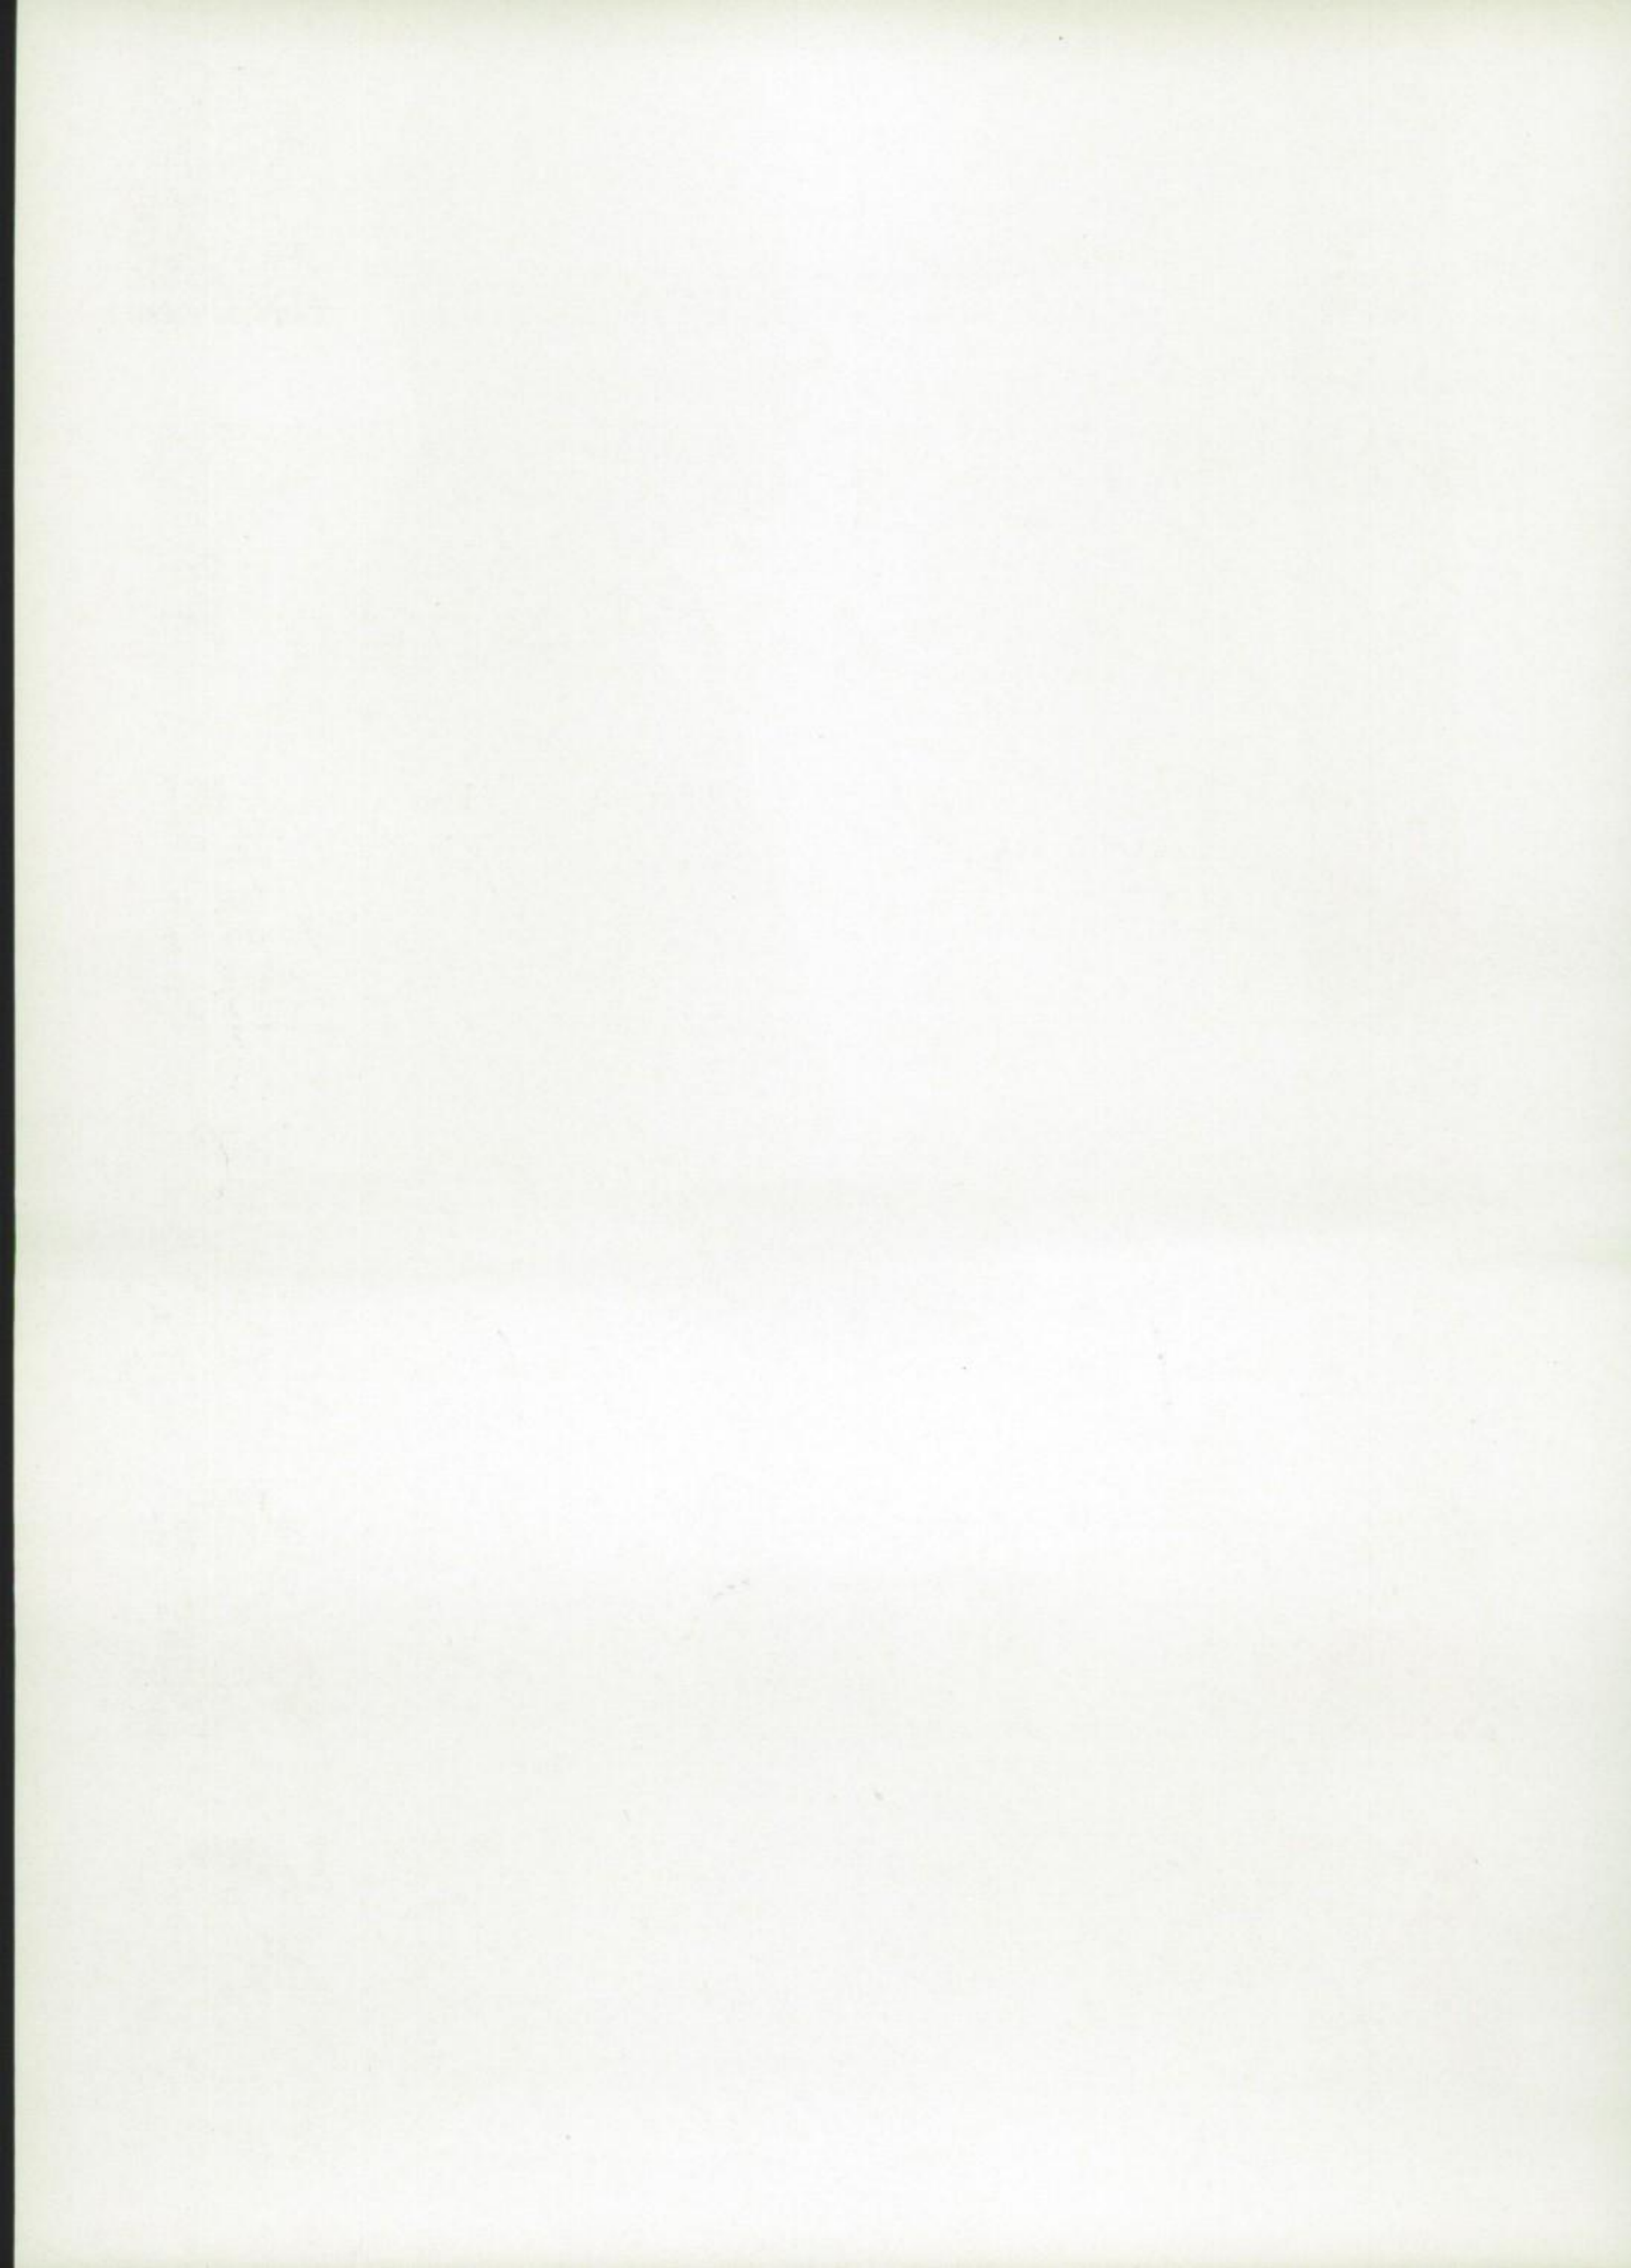

CONSTANCE STREIT--Her position as basketball manager to Sue Heide and Norene Neiting. Let's pick up those towels, girls.

JEAN TIMAN--Her quiet disposition to Bill Jesse and Jack Kinney. At least you won't be writing out of dictionaries.

ALAN WIEMERS and MILTON WILE--Their twin cars and cycles to Don Anderson and Dennis Ehn.

A high-contrast black and white photograph featuring a silhouette of a person in profile, looking out of a window. The person is wearing a dark jacket and has their hands clasped in front of them. The window is divided into several panes by dark frames. Through the window, a bright, hazy outdoor scene is visible, including what appears to be a fence or railing. The overall mood is contemplative and artistic.

OCTET

The 1966-67 Pomeroy High School mixed chorus is composed of 38 members who meet twice a week under the direction of Mrs. Beck.

It performs frequently during the year at various social functions. In the fall, the Calhoun County Music Festival is the big event. Shortly after this event, small groups are chosen from the chorus and they appear at numerous local events. A Christmas Concert and a Spring Operetta are presented annually by the chorus and band. Also on the calendar is the State Small and Large Group Contests in which they participate.
